

91st Annual Meeting of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Säugetierkunde (DGS)

04/06/2017 | Short Messages

18th –21st September 2017 in Greifswald

This year the annual conference of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Säugetierkunde (DGS) will take place for the first time in Greifswald. It will be organized by the Friedrich-Loeffler-Institut, the University Greifswald, Zoological Institute and Museum, the Ozeaneum Stralsund, the Tierpark Greifswald and the Zoological Garden Stralsund.

The scientific program will contain plenary lectures of Prof. Dr. William B. Karesh, New York, Prof. Dr. Barbara König, Zurich, and Prof. Dr. Gerald Heckel, Bern, and is focused on the three topics:

- I: Small mammals and their pathogens
- II: Hibernation and torpor
- III: Free topics

The organizers are looking forward to meeting you all in September 2017 here at the Baltic Sea for a successful and stimulating conference!

The registration and abstract submission are open now. For further information please visit the homepage of the meeting: <https://event.fli.de/de/year/2017/91st-annual-meeting-of-the-dgs>
